On behalf of the Province of Nova Scotia I am pleased to welcome you to the 2017 Hants County Exhibition.

For 252 years this event has celebrated the traditions and quality products of our agriculture industry. Once again this year, organizers have put together a schedule that is filled with fun and informative programming that everyone can enjoy. The displays, competitions and special activities highlight the very best of our province's agricultural producers and encourage Nova Scotians to choose locally grown and made products whenever they can.

I want to acknowledge the organizers, volunteers and sponsors who work tirelessly to put together this signature event. Your dedication to keeping agriculture in our province strong speaks to your passion for ensuring future generations continue to appreciate the importance of this industry for our rural communities.

Congratulations and enjoy the show!
Sincerely,

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE Welcome!

Welcome you to the 252nd edition of the Hants County Exhibition.

It takes a village to keep the tradition of exhibition alive and well - sponsors, competitors, exhibitors, performers, vendors, management, staff, and countless volunteers all come together to ensure a fun and educational family event that not only honours the importance of our agricultural heritage, but embraces the promise of the future.

A successful exhibition adds a significant boost to the local economy here in Windsor/West Hants, and generates the necessary revenue to maintain and improve our very busy and well used multipurpose four season facility.

On behalf of the board and staff of the Windsor Agricultural Society, thank you for coming, and have an excellent exhibition adventure. We hope you leave for home with a full belly, a big smile, and maybe a new idea or two. See you again next year!

Lisa Hines - President, Windsor Agricultural Society

Passive House is an emerging building standard in Nova Scotia that applies energy efficient techniques with comfort. From homes to construction buildings, these structures use up to 80 per cent less energy to heat than those built to regular building codes, but look and feel like regular buildings.

The Passive House display from Efficiency Nova Scotia is an interactive, hands-on education tool that features four stages, each representing components of Passive House building design – thermal conductivity, super-insulation and thermal bridge-free design. Visitors experience these components in fun interactive ways, learning how to make their homes more comfortable, energy efficient and healthy.

In 2017 there are six 4-H clubs in Hants County with a total enrollment of 239 members, (58 Cloverbuds), 92 generous and dedicated volunteer leaders and members are involved in just over 567 individual projects. Hants County Members enroll in a wide variety of projects, with 40 different livestock and life skill projects in 2017.

4-H members are not only involved in their individual clubs but also in their communities, as they complete community service in a variety of ways. 4-H members represent their clubs at Exhibition competing to attend the 4-H Nova Scotia Pro. Show. Members also participate within the county at various public speaking events throughout the year. Many members attend Camp Rankin on an annual basis as well as competing in woodsmen and tug-of-war competitions.

Exhibition allows 4-H members to showcase their skills, and to learn and grow as leaders. It also gives other youth in the community the opportunity to see what 4-H is all about by being open to the public. For more information about 4-H in Nova Scotia please visit: <http://novascotia4h.ca/>.
